

The Design

The 12m-aluminium Fire and Rescue boat is based upon the existing vessel and currently operating as a Fire and Rescue boat at the Seychelles International Airport.

This proven hull has subsequently been model-tested at Stellenbosch University to test additional improvements to the hull shape.

While the General Arrangement drawing shows the vessel as built for the Seychelles, we are amenable to any minor layout changes or practical suggestions you have to suit your own particular local operations.